

DARK DAYS

Are Days of Suffering—They Are Becoming Brighter for Some Honolulu People.

Many "dark days" from kidney illness, backache, headache—nervous, tired, urinary trouble—make you gloomy. Doan's Kidney Pills bring relief; have cured many kidney sufferers. Here's one case.

Mrs. Anna Bossard, 71 Syamore St., St. Paul, Minn., says: "I suffered terribly from kidney trouble and although I doctor constantly, I was often laid up. I grew discouraged and at the time Doan's Backache Kidney Pills were brought to my attention, I was confined to my bed. There were pains in my back, hips and shoulders and I was so helpless that I could not turn over. I had acute twinges through my bladder and I was very thin. Dizzy spells and headache also annoyed me. The use of the first box of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills gave me relief and after I had finished the contents of the second, I noticed a great change for the better. I continued taking this remedy and before long was able to get up from my bed unassisted. The stiffness and lame ness left my joints and my kidneys became normal. That happened nearly three years ago and today I am enjoying good health."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, (six boxes $2.50), or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

PSYCHOLOGY OF MURDER IS MYSTERY

Soldier Who Killed Comrade Is Grief Stricken and Says All is Blank.

CAN NOT TELL HIS REASON

No Evidence to Show Hagemann Was Intoxicated When Deed Was Committed.

(From Thursday Advertiser)

Held in Oahu prison, charged with the murder of his best friend, private Henry Gerken, William F. Hagemann of Company F, First Infantry, of which his victim was also a member, declares that to him the tragedy is a blank that he does not remember firing the shots which killed his comrade and that he would willingly give his own life if he could recall that of his lesson friend. When Hagemann appeared at Maynard Hendry's office yesterday morning to ask the officer to secure his release from the military guard, he gave every evidence of the sincerity of his grief.

HENRY GERKEN

The soldier slain by his best friend, * * * * * his comrade, died in the early morning of Dec. 10, 1912, at the First Infantry barracks, Fort DeRussy, Honolulu, at the age of 21. His body was found in the early morning of Dec. 11, 1912, in the barracks, and he was buried in the cemetery of the First Infantry. The cause of death was not known.

We send Hagemann to bathe here and the government spends nothing with him in view we should not allow him to go to the hospital if he has been shot. If he is not shot he should be allowed to go to the hospital if he has been hit.

The general impression seems to be that the defense will be temporary insanity, although Attorney Louis A. Drews, who represents the prisoner, has given no hinting of his plans.

It is said that Hagemann had been away from Oahu for a few days past, and that he had arrived in camp the evening of the day before his shooting, rather than the morning. It is supposed that Hagemann was feeling
